New-York, June 1st 1865

Dear Mrs Chapman

I havent received your favor of the 4th, when I wrote to you yesterday; it has just come down today - with other letters - from Philad.

I drank tea with Mrs Mott at her daughter's

Mr. Lord, in Brooklyn on last evening, & found an unusually amiable & pleasant and a hunting like connoisseur. Your letter explains, in part at least, why this was so. I had a particular desire that you & Mr. Throld meet, and I am rejoiced to hear that you did meet and that you "kettled".

concerning as you would be in a fiscal officer to a correct judgment in the matter I am sure your testimony must have had great weight.

Very truly

W. W. Chapman

Mr. Atkin
